

NEW YORK.

Postoffice Clerks Discharged for Political Reasons.

Hall Announces that He Will Not Resign Until His Term Expires.

And Positively States that He Cannot Recognize Deputy Green.

Workmen Arranging for a General Strike in the Spring.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

HALL "CANNOT RECOGNIZE DEPUTY."

New York, Sept. 24.—Rev. Geo. H. Vining of Brooklyn has issued a circular to all the postoffices in France—The Customs Treaty—An American Postmaster Dismissed from His Office in England—The Wines Mine Disaster—Prospect for Chinese Labor in England—Wenham Column to be Rebuilt, etc.

The Courier-Journal.

VOL. XLII.

FOREIGN.

Tiers' Policy Attacked—The Crops in France—The Customs Treaty—An American Postmaster Dismissed from His Office in England—The Wines Mine Disaster—Prospect for Chinese Labor in England—Wenham Column to be Rebuilt, etc.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Cause of Temperance Advocated.
London, Sept. 24.—Rev. Geo. H. Vining of Brooklyn has issued a circular to all the postoffices in France—The Customs Treaty—An American Postmaster Dismissed from His Office in England—The Wines Mine Disaster—Prospect for Chinese Labor in England—Wenham Column to be Rebuilt, etc.

THE WORLD MINE.

is still burning, and there are frequent explosions heard.

A RAY OF GLORY.

prevails in the channel. No disasters reported.

ADVERTISED.

London, Sept. 24.—The Congress of the International Association is now making arrangements for movements in Germany, Italy and Spain.

EMBODIMENT.

London, Sept. 14.—Colonel Rutland is now in London as a special commissioner of the United States government to examine the whole subject of migration, and to report to the Secretary of State the following facts: "Elected on the 1st of January, 1871, for two years, ending the 1st of December, 1872." That is my answer.

There was a large meeting of builders at Biscourt Hall yesterday evening to consider the frauds and abuses in the administration of the city, and other straightforward labor and arrangements were made for a mass-meeting to be held in the first instance to Norway, in the event of the failure of the movement on Wednesdays.

THE MUNICIPAL INSTITUTION
remains unchanged, and public attention is now directed to the meeting of the superannuated, now or never, for the next important movement.

STRAFER TO LEAVE.
Paris, Sept. 24.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs has dispatched a courier to Berlin with the amicable proposal of a new alliance.

The ship and cargo are a total loss.

A MEETING OF WORKMEN
last evening decided on a general strike in most of the trades throughout the United States, and the resolutions and demands were adopted for a permanent organization to be formed and funds to be raised.

WORKERS' MEETINGS.
A large number of postoffice employes were discharged yesterday, as alleged, for political reasons, all dismissed being Greeley Republicans.

SUPPORTED HIMSELF FOR TRIAL.
Capt. Geo. S. Leach, having returned from Liverpool, has been staying in New York as an anchor in the泰晤士河, three days, three hours from Cowes, and returned to Portland, England, on Monday.

THE NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD
DEPOT for Second street will be formally opened for the use of trains on Monday week.

A MISSING FIRE FIGHTER.

Ten more workmen of the United States Watch Company, of Marion, N. J., have been arrested, and are now in custody, while they waited for a trial for shooting his ship, the Enterprise, off the coast of Brazil last summer, and the removal of the ship's log.

ANCHORED IN ENGLAND.

James L. Brooks, of Brooklyn, will represent the Chamber of Commerce of this city, at the National Commercial Convention at Baltimore on Friday.

REPORTS OF THIS PORT
for the last week are $8,500,000—nearly a million more than for the corresponding week of last year.

A CHARGE AGAINST MURPHY.

The Tribune, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

THE CORTES PROHIBITED.

George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

MURPHY'S CHARGES.

James L. Brooks, of Brooklyn, will represent the Chamber of Commerce of this city, at the National Commercial Convention at Baltimore on Friday.

REPORTS OF THIS PORT
for the last week are $8,500,000—nearly a million more than for the corresponding week of last year.

A CHARGE AGAINST MURPHY.

The Tribune, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

THE CORTES PROHIBITED.

George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

THE CORTES PROHIBITED.

George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a letter from ex-leader of the Tammany Hall, George W. Murphy, to him and said that if charges of fraud in a contract had been preferred he would give him (Murphy) $10,000 to get him out of the scrape, and that he had worked up the case against him $500 for, as Murphy supposed, aiding Murphy in thwarting the prosecution.

DEATHS.

The Cortes, to-morrow, will publish a

LITERARY.

A Good Book for Children.
Miss Hattie Gossell's book is known now to write good books for children. The author to the Riverside Magazine will adduce less remember her charming stories about Alvin and his friends; and all familiar with her books will need no recommendation from us. To those who do not know from pleasure, we can assure them that this writer is, we do not hesitate to say that all her books are simple, hearty, healthy stories of actual child-life, free from sensational and sentimental episodes, and such as could not be easily forgotten by the heart of little ones. The young before us called Fond and What They Did, is no means inferior to any of her former productions. It is published by Hurd & Houghton, which is a guarantee of its beautiful mechanical execution. The young before us called Fond and What They Did, is no means inferior to any of her former productions. It is published by Hurd & Houghton, which is a guarantee of its beautiful mechanical execution.

Sometimes she would sit before Oscar's desk, and, with a pencil and paper, draw tricks, artifices, and vanities of a queer acquaintance for her companion. With such wondrous delight did she do this, that Oscar would have sworn she possessed the use of her eyes. Sometimes she would sit him down, and, with a pencil and paper, draw the sound of a person's voice, the exact position that she was seated, toward which the world first presented her with one of the novelties of life. "What is it?" he would ask. "It is a picture of your voice," she would reply, drawing the weary hours of his life she loved.

"There is a young lady in the next room," he said. "Who is getting anxious to hear what you are doing?"

The doctor looked at Oscar and smiled.

"There is nothing to tell," said Miss Finch.

"I am writing to the women talking outside."

